Doughton Gives GOP Guide by Which Tax Veto Could Be Passed

Republicans Should Trim Cut 2 Billions North Carolina Democrat Says; Parts With President on Tax Issue

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.) told the House today if Republicans trim their tax-cutting bill from $6,500,000 to around $4,250,000,000 Congress will override any veto.

That was in effect a promise that enough Democrats will join the Republicans to make the tax cut law even if President Truman disapproves it.

It takes a two-thirds vote to override a veto.

Doughton took the floor shortly before a vote on the bill and parted ways with the President on the tax issue.

The President wants to relieve individual tax burdens by $3,200,000,000 but make up the revenue loss by a new excess profits levy of that size on corporations.

Doughton, who managed tax legislation when Democrats controlled Congress, said he believes a "moderate" overall tax cut, excluding an excess profits levy, can be made at this time.

But the veteran legislator battled a tax cut as big as $6,500,000,000.

He described the G.O.P. measure as "too soon and too much," and declared a tax slash of proportions in the bill might run the risk of putting the Treasury in the red.

Doughton said Republicans failed last year to cut government spending as much as they said they could and have again figured on big spending, cuts when framing their tax bill.

He added: "They ignore the biblical admonition, 'Which of you intending to build a tower sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he has sufficient to finish it.'"

But he said, "I believe there is room for a moderate, safe, sane tax reduction law."

No Change Indicated

Republicans apparently were all set to ram their bill through the House without change.

Republicans and Democrats alike agree that the bill up for passage today is unlikely to be the one that goes to the White House.

Both sides look for the Senate to whittle down the amount of the cut in an effort to corral the Democratic votes needed for the two-thirds majority in both houses to override an almost certain presidential veto.

Cunningham Dies; Autopsy Ordered By Coroner Kelly

Retired Railway Conductor Was in Accident, but Seemed Improved at Hospital

Joseph Cunningham, 65, of 156 Pine street, died at 6:35 a. m. today at the Kingston Hospital. He had been taken to the hospital Friday afternoon when the car in which he was riding left the road on Route 28 about two miles west of Kingston and overturned, according to the sheriff's office.

At the time, the injuries sustained by Cunningham were described by sheriff's office men as facial injuries, and his condition was reported as "good" the following day at the hospital. He was expected to leave the hospital shortly.

Following Cunningham's death this morning, Coroner Ernest A. Kelly ordered an autopsy performed to determine the cause of death.

Following the autopsy, Coroner Kelly said that death was definitely the result of the automobile accident. Death was due to acute pneumothorax, hemorrhage, and other injuries, including multiple fracture of the ribs.

Fight to End Non-Red Pledge Goes Before Federal Judges

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—A union fight to outlaw the non-Communist pledge requirement of the Taft-Hartley Act went before a three judge federal court today for argument.

The suit, brought by the C.I.O. National Maritime Union, attacks the constitutionality of the provision which says that before a union can enjoy the laws' benefits its leaders must file (1) affidavits disclaiming Communism and (2) certain financial data.

Failure to file the required statements bars a union from the National Labor Relations Board. Among other things, the N.L.R.B. can require employers to bargain with it on wages and working conditions.

The union's main contention is that the right of workers to denounce as a group with an employer is contained in the freedom of speech and freedom of assembly clauses of the constitution's first amendment.

Nehru Stakes His Government on Peace For Which Gandhi Was Slain; Violence, Communal Hatred Banned by Ministry

Cold Wave Surges Southward From Midwestern Areas

Cloudy Weather Expected to Take Edge From Easterly Movement of Mass

Chicago, Feb. 2 (AP)—Another "extremely cold wave" surged southward through the upper midwest today as the chilled eastern half of the country eyed the antics of the groundhog for his legendary long-range weather forecast.

Probably most persons prefer to string along with predictions indicated by gadgets in the Weather Bureau but the groundhog's shadow or lack of it won't go unnoticed whether it forbodes prolonged cold weather or an early spring.

In most of the eastern half of the nation where an estimated 250,000 workers have been made idle because of gas and other fuel shortages in industry, the week-long cold wave was broken, the weather bureau said.

Somewhat warmer weather was in prospect today in both the east and south.

In eastern states generally, the temperature was expected to climb to freezing or above as the worst of the frigid blast moved out to sea.

Although a large area of the south was colder early today than the north central states, a leveling off was in prospect there also.

The latest cold wave moved across the Canadian line in the Dakotas and Minnesota last night.

Would Feel Blast

Northern Nebraska and northern Iowa would feel the sting of the frigid blast with sub-zero readings tonight, but cloudy weather in the Great Lakes region promised to take some of the edge off its eastward movement, the Weather Bureau said.

Sunshine and rising temperatures yesterday brought a sufficient thaw to permit thousands of motorists snowbound in Tennessee to resume southward automobile journeys. At Pulaski, an estimated 1,000 motorists had been reported stranded with 400 more at Columbia.

Snowfall ranging upward to 15 inches in Virginia yesterday forced the closing of schools today in 22 counties of the state. And in eastern North Carolina the worst ice, sleet and snow storm in years left roads blocked with car-high drifts. Henderson had 18 inches of snow and Tarboro 15 inches, while Wilmington on the coast was sheathed in ice with all but one telephone line in the city broken. Rural schools in at least 26 counties were closed today.

There was some light snow today in the central great plains and mountain states and rain in Texas and Oklahoma but elsewhere the skies generally were clear.

Flanders Would Talk Rations With Brannan

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) said today he wants to know just where the administration stands on meat rationing and to get the information he will ask Charles F. Brannan, assistant secretary of agriculture, to appear again before his committee studying a standby rationing bill.

Flanders told a reporter he wants to ask Brannan, among other things, about apparent differences within the administration over a rationing plan.

President Truman told his news conference last week he could not say whether meat rationing is imminent.

At almost the same time, Brannan was telling the Flanders group that machinery for rationing should be set up immediately.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has said that while he favors both rationing and price control, rationing alone would be better than nothing.

But Mr. Truman said there is no use having rationing without price control.

Car Blocked Sidewalk

Police reported that between about 8:15 and 8:20 a. m. Sunday they received about a dozen calls complaining of a car parked on the sidewalk on West Flomont street just off McEnroe street.

The car had the sidewalk completely blocked, since there were large piles on either side, police said. Patrolmen George Bowers and Gerald Every attempted to find the owner, but could not. They ticketed the car, and had it towed to Dock Smith's garage on Clinton avenue.

Palestine Post Bombed; Unable To Fix Blame

At Least 20 Persons Injured and Damage Placed at $800,000; Square Littered

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Jerusalem, Feb. 2 (AP)—Police said today they were still unable to fix the blame for a bomb blast which wrecked the Palestine Post last night, injured at least 20 persons and touched off an $800,000 fire.

One Arab source said Arabs did it. Other informants blamed Jewish extremists, who have threatened the pro-Zionist, English-language daily newspaper because of its moderate stand on Jewish defense.

Still other sources blamed Britons known for their anti-Jewish sentiments.

Downtown Jerusalem, Zion Square and Ben Yehuda street were littered with broken glass from windows shattered as far as 1,000 yards from the site of the blast.

Magen David Clinic, across from the Post building—its badly damaged by the explosion—reported it had 11 injured, two critically. Other hospitals reported a total of eight or nine from the paper. Dozens of other persons walked around with bandages.

There was no official confirmation to reports that a woman living in the Post building was killed in the blast.

The paper put out a single sheet, two-page edition today. Ted Lurie, New York-born assistant editor, said that would continue until further notice.

The blast, which occurred just before midnight, caused a fire which threatened to engulf an entire city block.

John Adler, business manager of the Post, estimated the blaze caused a loss of about $800,000.

Two American citizens on the paper's staff, unharmed, helped rescue seven fellow employees.

They were rewrite man Dov Ben Abba, 30, of Brookline, Mass., and Mordecai Chertoff, 20, of (390 Riverside Drive) New York city, the makeup editor.

U.S. and Italy Sign Commercial Treaty

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—The United States and Italy signed today a new commercial treaty including a promise by each to allow "freedom of information."

That clause says Italians in the United States and Americans in Italy will be free to write, report and send news without censorship.

It is the first time there has been such a clause in any American treaty with a European country.

The treaty replaces a pact of "friendship, commerce and navigation" made in 1871 but set aside during Mussolini's regime.

Congress Is Ready To Cut $800,000,000 Off Marshall Plan

Sen. Bridges Says Figures Convince Him There Is No Need for Full Amount

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—Congress appears to be getting ready today to chop an $800,000,000 chunk off the starting cost of the Marshall Plan. A fight to cut even deeper is possible.

Chairman Bridges (R-N.H.) of the Senate Appropriations Committee said administration figures have convinced him there is no need to appropriate the full $6,800,000,000 asked by President Truman. That is the amount sought to operate the European recovery program for the first 15 months beginning April 1.

Bridges cited testimony by State Department officials before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week that about $800,000,000 of the total would go for goods which won't be shipped to Europe until after July 1, 1949.

"We might consider giving them some contract authority," Bridges told a reporter. "But I don't see any reason for appropriating that money now if the goods aren't going to be shipped until 17 months from now."

There were indications that Bridges' view is shared by some Republican members of the House Appropriations Committee, where the cutting axe will fall first.

Still other members of Congress have made it clear they want much deeper economy.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has said that spending under the proposed program should be held down $1,000,000,000 under the

Death of Leader Traced to Greater Hindu Organization; Crowds Mill in Bombay

Three Men Marked

Patel, Nehru and Azad Also Were Slated for Assassination

New Delhi, Feb. 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru staked the survival of his government today on the issue of restoring peace, for which Mohandas K. Gandhi was killed.

In swift implementation of Nehru's stand, the home ministry issued a communique abolishing private armies and "any organization preaching violence or communal hatred."

Gandhi's ashes were prepared for committal to the Ganges, a river his Hindu followers consider sacred. His body was cremated on a huge sandalwood pyre by the waters of the Jammu river yesterday after his youngest son, by Hindu rite, had lit the fire.

Gandhi, 78, was assassinated en route to a prayer meeting. His assailant was held incommunicado. Crowds in Bombay, angered by Gandhi's death, tried to burn the house of a member of the militant Mahasabha (greater Hindu organization). They attempted to stop traffic and close shops. They kept all but a few workers from their jobs.

Says Three Marked

Home Minister Sardar Vallabhai Patel said he, Nehru and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the education minister, all had been marked for assassination because they advocated peace with the Moslems, as did Gandhi. The gang accused of plotting the deaths was hunted.

The Home Ministry said India and the princely state of Hyderabad, ruled by Moslems, had agreed to work in close harmony to settle problems which were assuming serious proportions.

Small border riots had broken out. Nehru told the constituent assembly his government would stand or fall on the issue of restoring peace.

"If we don't do that we are not worth being in this government; certainly not of being his (Mohandas K. Gandhi's) followers or even saying words of praise for 'the great soul,' Nehru said.

"I have a sense of utter shame as an individual and as the head of the government that we should have failed to protect the greatest treasure we possess."

On the banks of the Jumna, meanwhile, the ashes of the assassinated Gandhi were reverently collected and, prepared for scattering on waters sacred to orthodox Hindus.

Officials of the Indian union hunted for a gang accused of plotting to send three high officials of the dominion to their deaths with Gandhi.

Nehru, who had just returned from the services beside the Jumna, had to pause at times as he spoke to the assembly at a memorial service for Gandhi. He was barely able to control his tears and sobbing.

"Gandhi's assassination is not the isolated act of a madman," he told the hushed assembly, which is jointly the constitution-writing and legislative branch of the new Indian government. Gandhi is the affectionate, diminutive form of the name.

"It is the result of a certain atmosphere of violence and hatred that has prevailed in the country for many months and years, especially the past few months."

"If we are to serve the cause that Gandhi put before us we have to face this atmosphere, combat it, struggle against it and root out this evil of hatred and violence from the country and from our individual selves."

"I assure you on behalf of the government of India that we will spare no means, no effort to do that. If we don't do that we are not worth being in this government."

Through Watches Quietly

Earlier, at the services beside the Jumna, a throng of 5,000 watched quietly as the ashes were sifted carefully. One object sifted out was handed to Nehru, one of the slain man's closest associates.

Later a close adviser to the Gandhi family said the object might be the charred remains of a steel pen someone had thrown into the fire.

Gandhi's bones were picked from the ashes during the service and put into an urn. The ashes were poured, by hand and with a garden shovel and clay coops, into sacks.

The remains were left to be picked up by military lorry and hauled away to await final disposition. The flowers around Gandhi

Dr. F. A. Lorenzo, president of the local Groundhog Club, reported that the sun shone for one minute at 8:45 a. m. (E.S.T.) and the groundhog saw his shadow and retreated for six weeks.

Gertie, the Philadelphia Zoo's groundhog, made good in her first outing as a weather prophet in that city. She waddled from the small mammal house, looked around, blinked in the sun, and scampered back to her nest.

his funeral pyre were carried off to be cast into the Jumna. Socialists marched through New Delhi shouting slogans against the militant Hindu Mahasabha, the organization some blamed for Gandhi's death. Many carried staves and clubs. They were orderly.

Hindu was set against Hindu by Gandhi's assassination and by word of the conspiracy, both laid to those of his own faith. Unofficial estimates were that at least 50 had been slain in rioting since the pistol killing of the 78-year-old patriot Friday night.

Home Minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel told correspondents last night that he, Prime Minister Nehru and Education Minister Maulana Abul Kalam Azad had been marked for murder by a group decrying leniency toward Moslems.

Trouble was reported over the week-end from Bombay and Madras provinces far to the south. Moslems attacked members of the militant Hindu Mahasabha (great Hindu organization). Gandhi's accused assassin was reported by police to belong to the party. In Bombay Province, some 80 were estimated unofficially to have been killed and 300 wounded.

Patel, India's chief law enforcement officer, and called "Iron Man" of Nehru's Congress Party, told correspondents the conspiracy was under investigation and arrests were being made. He urged the people not to take the law into their own hands.

Patel would not say whether Gandhi's death had resulted from the plot. But another high government official indicated the home minister knew it had.

"There is ample evidence that we were marked to be liquidated," Patel said, "because a certain group believed we were making too many concessions to Pakistan and Moslems generally."

India and Pakistan were created British dominions in a split of the Indian subcontinent last August 15. Gandhi had fasted and pleaded in an effort to ally Hindu-Sikh-Moslem strife that followed.

The Hindu Mahasabha criticized him publicly for that. It has fought the Congress Party whenever the latter tried to work with the Moslem League. The organization seeks an India with a legal code rooted in ancient Hindu law.

Patel did not mention the Mahasabha. He would not comment on the case of Narayan Vinayak Godse, 25, of Poona, held for investigation of murder in the Gandhi assassination.

Bombay police arrested G. V. Deshpande, Mahasabha secretary, and several other members of the party for investigation of unspecified accusations.

President's estimates for the year beginning July 1.

This figure is reported to have been discussed by Republican leaders. They have been meeting secretly in an effort to reach an informal agreement between Senate and House members on how much to whack off Mr. Truman's $3,600,000,000 budget.

Signs are that the leaders may agree on a $3,000,000,000 cut in all federal spending. At the same time they may pledge a $2,600,000,000 payment on the national debt.

Financial and Commercial

By VICTOR EUBANK

New York, Feb. 2 (AP)—Stocks today began the new month with modest and selective rising inclinations although market dealings were quiet and exceptions in evidence.

Delayed reinvestment demand aided assorted favorites. Professional bidding for a resumption of the recent technical comeback provided a prop. A mild revival of tax hopes brought some purchases. The market still was plentiful, however, and the either held aloof or trimmed accounts.

The pace slackened after a fairly active start. Fractional advances predominated near the fourth hour with a few wider climbs.

Attracting purchasers were Rock Island Railroad, Union Pacific, Illinois Central, U. S. Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, J. I. Case, International Harvester, Caterpillar Tractor, Western Union, Allied Air Lines, Standard Oil (N. J.) and Gulf Oil.

Monsanto Chemicals weakened as new stock financing was announced and despite an earnings jump. Occasional stumblers were Packard Motors, Sears Roebuck, General Electric, Loew's, John-Manville, Mission Corp., Southern Railway and Chesapeake & Ohio. Bonds were narrow and commodities lower.

Since then Mr. Truman has proposed a plan of his own. He would give everyone a $40 "cost of living" tax credit and make up the regular income tax liability by giving individual taxpayers a total cut of $4,000,000,000.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) immediately accused the Democrats of "deserting" Mr. Truman's tax policy. Democratic Leader Rayburn (Tex.) countered this by telling the Democrats his bill follows closely the President's suggestion that relief should be given to low-income groups and that the revenue loss should be recovered so far as possible from corporation profits.

Their figured this could cost the Treasury only about $800,000,000 while giving individual taxpayers a total cut of $4,000,000,000.

Strike of Bus Drivers Postponed 60 Days

Bergenfield, N. J., Feb. 2 (AP)—A strike of 177 bus drivers, which threatened to halt service in lines serving northern New Jersey and Rockland county, N. Y., at midnight Saturday, has been postponed for 60 days.

A spokesman for Rockland Lodge 329, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said Saturday night the postponement was made in "the interest of the commuters."

The drivers are employed by Rockland Coaches, Inc., Spring Valley Motor Coach Co., Inc., Rockland Transit Corp., Tappan and Nyack Bus, Inc., and Hill Bus Co.

The brotherhood spokesman said, "It is hoped that the companies will continue to bargain collectively and in good faith."

A 25 per cent increase in basic wages of $1.20 an hour is sought by the drivers. Their contract expired December 31 and was extended 30 days by the companies.

Labor relations consultants for the five affiliated companies, Paul W. Hardy and Steven T. Black, said the brotherhood had been notified all terms and conditions of the new contract would expire at midnight Saturday. A brotherhood spokesman said it was assumed present wages would be maintained. Drivers thus will work without a contract until a new agreement is reached or until the new strike deadline, April 4.

Syrians May Sue France for Losses

Damascus, Syria, Feb. 2 (AP)—The Syrian government was reported today to be considering suing France for losses attributed to devaluation of the franc.

French officials, who such a suit, if filed, would be brought in the International Court of Justice at The Hague and would involve the devaluations of last month and of 1944.

The government yesterday announced separation of Syrian currency from the franc and instructed its representative in Paris to break off negotiations for a new currency agreement with France.

The official announcement said the government intends to create a purely national currency backed by a healthy export and import policy. The new currency would be denominated in Syrian pounds and would be attached to the pound sterling.

The government said the rate of 8.83 Syrian pounds to one pound sterling would be maintained.

Protests Are Rejected

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—The United States rejected outright today Russia's protest against the Italian ports. A State Department note said that the Italian government granted advance permission for each such visit. It said that the calls were "in strict accord with the comity of nations."

It is customary for sovereign states to grant privileges of visits to foreign vessels and personnel of friendly foreign powers," the note added.

Would Free Assets

Washington, Feb. 2 (AP)—The National Advisory Council took steps today to free $1,000,000,000 in foreign assets frozen here to benefit western European nations. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder reported today that the assets would be turned over to the alien property custodian this amount owned by citizens of countries on the Marshall plan aid list. About $350,000,000 of it is held by French citizens.

Notes Are Returned

Reports Car Hit By Milk Truck

Whalen Says McBride Truck Didn't Stop

William P. Whalen, 25 Boulevard, reported to police at 2:30 p. m., Sunday that his car, parked in front of his home, had been struck and damaged by a McBride milk truck tanker, which continued without stopping.

Whalen said that he was standing alongside his car at the time, and the driver of the milk truck waved to him to get out of the way. He said that the left rear of the tractor struck the left rear of his car. He told police he did not want to have the driver arrested, because he believed the driver did not know that the truck struck the car.

Police notified the sheriff's office, who learned that the truck was driven by Jay A. Gillespie of New Hampton, and owned by the H. L. F. McBride of Goshen. Police said the truck was insured, and reports will be filed.

went to his room at 5 p. m. to ask him what he wanted for supper, and he replied that he would not eat.

At about 5:15 p. m. when Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Nickerson and children of 46 Lincoln street, Kingston, were "sitting down to eat supper, a noise was heard upstairs," the report said.

Mr. Nickerson went up and found Mr. Fisher lying on the floor with a single barrel, 12 gauge gun across his legs and a wound in his chest.

Nickerson called Dr. E. F. Galvin of Rosendale, "who pronounced him dead." Dr. Galvin called Mr. Moylan, who in turn called Coroner McHugh and the sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff Arthur Brown was assigned to investigate.

The Rosendale man is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah L. Fisher, 73 and two sons, Francis J., and Clarence W. Fisher, Mrs. Howard R. Nickerson is a grand-daughter.

The funeral will be held from the George J. Moylan Funeral Home, Rosendale, at a time to be announced.

The department inhalator was used on Mr. Lown for about 10 minutes, at the advice of Dr. Krom, the department reported.

The firemen were notified by passersby, who said they saw Mrs. Lown leaning out of a window. Engine 3 from Wiltwyck station responded to the call.

The house is a two and one-half story stone dwelling owned by the Montrose Cemetery Association and occupied by LeRoy V. Crosswell, cemetery superintendent.

Railroads Are Asked to Defer Use of Diesels

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 2 (AP)—State Fuel Oil Coordinator Charles H. Sells today asked railroads operating in New York to defer use of new diesel locomotives until May 1.

Sells said the action, followed recommendations of his policy and operating committees last week that railroads be urged not to increase their present consumption of fuel oil.

The state coordinator said he understood that several new diesel locomotives were to be delivered to New York lines.

He said the railroads were not being asked to curtail current use of oil burning engines, but to accept the same conservation measures "as other users."

Representatives of the major oil companies serve on the policy and operating committees. They act in an advisory capacity in petroleum supplies.

Green Street Man To Appear on Charge

Walter R. Heidelmark, 44, of 252 Green street, Albany, was arrested at Clinton Prison, Dannemora, by Sheriff George C. Smith and County Investigator Clayton Vredenburg Saturday for appearance here in county court on a grand larceny charge.

The charge followed an investigation of thefts at an Ellenville hotel more than a year ago. A ring, traced through an Albany girl, the authorities said, was using jewelry alleged to be taken from the Ellenville hotel.

Albert A. Niemi, 36, of the Hofbrau, St. James street. The auto, according to a sheriff's report, failed to make a turn on Route 28 and left the road near the Kennedy property, slightly more than a mile west of the city.

Kenneth B. Baggett, 25, of U. S. Navy, who also gave his address as the Hofbrau, was riding with Niemi and Cunningham at the time of the accident, the sheriff's report said.

The driver's report at the sheriff's office said that he lost control of the car as he was headed toward Kingston. Baggett, the report said, was uninjured.

Deputy Sheriffs Harry Keator and Delbert Sapp investigated for the sheriff's office. The investigation today was being conducted by Sheriff George C. Smith and County Investigator Clayton Vredenburg.

Cunningham was a retired railroad conductor on the West Shore division of the New York Central Railroad, where he worked for many years. He was the son of the late Patrick J. and Elizabeth Phelan Cunningham and is survived by two brothers, Michael J. and Alexander P., both of Kingston; a sister, Mrs. Irving Stoddard of Newburgh, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held from the Jensen & Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street, Thursday at 9 a. m. and at 9:30 o'clock from St. Joseph's Church, where a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Block Installed as Teacher

The installation of Waldemar Bloch, of St. Louis, Mo., as teacher and principal of Immanuel Lutheran School, took place Sunday morning, February 1, 1948, in the regular service.

The Rev. E. L. Witte officiated at the installation service and in his sermon welcomed Mr. Bloch to the congregation. He is taking over the work of the school which is now in its 78th year. Pastor Witte stressed the fact that the Lutheran Church had made great emphasis on Christian education and with Luther believed that teaching the children the fundamentals of Christian faith is next to the holy ministry.

Pastor Witte pleaded for the cooperation of the entire congregation.

Steingut Says 'Observations' Due On Dewey Budget

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 2 (AP)—Democratic legislative leaders will make some "observations" tonight on Governor Dewey's record $799,600,000 budget, Assembly Minority Leader Irwin Steingut disclosed today.

Steingut said that aides had been studying the 1948-49 budget over the week-end in preparation for an intensified assault on Dewey's fiscal policies and that he had conferred with Senate Democratic Leader Elmer F. Quinn, who will carry the party ball in the Senate chamber.

A public hearing on the budget will be held February 11. Steingut returned yesterday from Florida, where he went for a rest after a recurrence of a heart ailment early last month. Tonight will mark his first appearance in Albany this year.

Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick and Republican State Chairman Glen R. Bedenkapp last night entered the inter-party war that has raged here for a week over Dewey's financial policies.

Fitzpatrick called for an investigation of these policies "on a non-partisan level."

He said the Dewey administration was the most inefficient and spendthrift in the history of the state.

Dewey "has taken over $600,000,000 more in taxes from us than would have been taken had (former) Governor Lehman's last budget been extended through the intervening years," Fitzpatrick said in a statement.

If the figures "spell out a story of colossal inefficiency and wastefulness," Fitzpatrick added, "name calling is no answer."

The Democratic Chairman declared that state division of veterans affairs "has been notoriously political, in its administration overlapping and duplicating the work of the Federal Veterans Administration, at a cost of $2,000,000 per year to the taxpayers."

Calls It Misrepresentation Bedenkapp termed Fitzpatrick's statement "another in the series politically inspired misrepresentations, ordered by the opposition high command in Washington, against the magnificent administration of Governor Dewey."

"Apparently last week's statement by the two minority leaders boomeranged so badly," Bedenkapp said, "that it has now been decided by White House advisers to let the Democratic state chairman see if he can make any headway with the fraud."

"In answering the latest political charge of the opposition, I should like simply to quote the published remarks of a leading New York city Democratic county chairman, following the publication of last week's minority statements," in which the "Democrats accused Dewey of financial jugg-

gling. "It is this: 'Stuff and nonsense.'"

Bedenkapp apparently referred to Queens County Democratic Leader James A. Roe, who was quoted as saying the Democratic "spendthrift" blast at Dewey, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, was "stuff and nonsense."

Meanwhile the State Schools Boards Association protested against the Dewey administration's proposed revision of the Friedman formula of state aid to education because, the association said, "it would impose a greater tax burden on localities."

The revision, devised by Dewey's Special Committee on Education provides for an increase of $56,000,000 in aid to public schools and a correlated increase in local contributions.

Wage Agreement Reached for Bakeries

New York, Feb. 2 (AP)—A minor break in a threatened strike of 10,000 to 12,000 bakery workers was reported yesterday.

A new wage agreement covering 500 Queens employees was reached between the Associated Retail Bakeries of Queens and Local 17, Bakery and Confectionary Workers Union (A.F.L.).

Theodore W. Kheel, director of the city's division of labor relations, announced the settlement, calling for a wage increase of $4.50 a week.

The wages were raised from $78 to $82.50 for the continued six-day 48-hour week. Max Kralstein, vice-president of the Bakery Workers International Union, said:

The settlement came at City Hall after officials of three other A.F.L. bakery locals had agreed to postponement of a walkout which had been scheduled for Saturday midnight against the two largest employer groups in the city, the Metropolitan Bakers Guild and the Specialty Bakery Owners of America.

Henry A. Mayer, a union lawyer, said, despite the Queens settle-

'These Days'

By George E. Sokolsky

THE AMERICAN TARIFF
Since the day of Alexander Hamilton, the tariff has been a sovereign activity of the United States, the Congress determining what it should be and in what manner it is to be collected. This phase of American sovereignty has now been delegated to 17 nations, including debtors to the United States. Apart from the United States, these countries are Great Britain, Canada, India, Australia, Union of South Africa, New Zealand, Belgium-Luxembourg, Netherlands (known as Benelux), Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, France, Norway, Lebanon, Soviet Russia declined to join.

The 17 nations have held a number of meetings, the principal ones being at Geneva and Havana. At Geneva, they drew up a document which they call a Charter, the effect of which transfers tariff-making from the Congress of the United States to this body of debtor nations. Of course, that would be unconstitutional, so the device used is the Trade Agreement Act of 1934, since extended up to June 12, 1948, conferring upon the President the right to reduce the tariff under certain specific conditions.

The President can proclaim certain tariff changes as though they originated with him. Actually, they are a result of the conference among these 17 nations and are part of a General Agreement concluded by the International Trade Organization (ITO) of the United Nations. The decisions of ITO thus become the law of the land. Congress has thus abdicated an important part of American sovereignty. The Geneva Agreement affects about 3,600 tariff rates. A partial list shows that the following American commodities will be affected:

Shoes, glass, pottery, printing, engraving, stereotyping and electrotyping, bookbinding, cigar making, hats, painting, decorating and paper hanging, carpenters and joiners, breweries, meat cutters and butchers, garment industry, brick and clay, brick-laying, masonry and plastering, marble, slate and stone, wood carving, coopers, paper making, pulp sulphite and paper mills, metal polishers, buffers, platers, lithography, leather, wallpaper, wire weaving, aluminum cement, lace, distillery products, watches, agricultural products generally, wool, mutation chemicals, pigments and dyes, salt, glassware, tile, chinaware, optical instruments, dental and surgical instruments, cutlery, scissors and shears, hardware, tools, saws, etc., electrical appliances, agricultural implements, metal abrasives, cast-iron pipe, firearms and ammunition, wire cloth, textile, shoe, etc. machinery, zinc, lead, copper and brass, nuts, figs, dates and other specialty crops, textiles, cotton, woolsens and worsteds, papermakers, felt, laces and embroideries, threads, twines and cordage, rayons, velvets and velveteens, elastic fabrics, wool felt hat bodies, linoleum and felt-base floor coverings, carpets and rugs, leather goods, pencils and pens, toys, bicycles.

The gist of the matter is that a tariff policy is being fixed for the United States by its debtors at a time when no one can correctly determine what the economic situation of the world will be a month hence. We have witnessed France's revaluation of her currency by unilateral action. It so happens that what France did suits the United States, but it upsets Great Britain's economy, which this country has underwritten to the tune of $3,750,000,000. If anybody still remembers, who can say what Great Britain will be forced to do? In a word, we fix our tariff at a moment of universal flux.

Clair Wilcox, director of the Office of International Trade Policy of the State Department, makes this point in a defense of ITO:

"Political cooperation among nations remains in jeopardy so long as individual nations feel free to wage economic warfare with weapons of their own choosing and rules of their own making."

But that does not explain why the creditor country should be so completely at the mercy of its debtors. It is particularly difficult to understand why the United States should have to make all the sacrifices. The other countries made it clear that they could not go along with the ITO program unless we cut our tariff—so we cut our tariff.

Unquestionably the State Department bypassed Congress. The entire subject requires detailed investigation by Congress. Certainly the Trade Agreement law, which expires on June 12, 1948, ought not and probably will not be renewed. Meanwhile, business and labor, which face wild competition from socialized and low-wage countries, ought to consider their interests.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

SHAPE OF YOUR STOMACH
Some years ago an X-ray specialist published a set of diagrams showing four different shapes of the stomach. He used these to show physicians, and sometimes the patient, the shape of the stomach examined, and why certain symptoms arose because of this shape. If symptoms were present and the shape of the stomach were normal and no ulcer or cancer were present, it was good evidence that the symptoms were caused by nervousness and emotional disturbances.

The four types of stomach are:

1. The stomach with a shape like a syphon with the large end uppermost. This is called a hyper (above) tone stomach, with strong muscular walls and such a downward slant toward the small intestine that it soon empties its food into the small intestine. This is considered a normal stomach.
2. The stomach with the shape of the letter "J". The food remains in the stomach longer than in the first type, but does not have to climb any distance before it is emptied into the small intestine. This is considered a normal type.
3. This type has the shape of the letter "U", the left side reaching to half the height of the right. This has less than the normal tone or power.
4. The fourth, still like the letter "U", has the left side almost as high as the right, with little or no tone or muscular power.

In their book "Byways to Health," Dr. Thomas D. Wood and Theresa Dunsill outline these same four shapes of the stomach, and advise that those who have a stomach of the shape of the third and fourth should not drink much water at meal time. "Since water seeks its lowest level, it is far more difficult for a stomach of weak muscular tone to pass water than solid food."

Stomach number one is emptied of food in two or three hours, number two in three or four, number three in four or five, number four in five or six hours.

Individuals with a poor muscular tone (numbers three and four) would do well to lie on their right side for 10 to 15 minutes before lunch and before dinner. This helps food to flow or siphon into the small intestine.

Belmont and Marshall Plan
How are the top men in the Socialist governments of Western Europe going to keep themselves in power?

Today their ships are heaving on rough seas of unfulfilled promises and production shortages.

They must have more production, but Socialists cannot get it. They can never get production in a degree comparable to that of the enterprise system. Even Stalin, with absolute power, presides over a stagnant industry, with people starving.

Socialists cannot get production in Europe because the shadow of nationalization scares business men out of business. It is hardly to be expected that investors will invest at a time when Socialists threaten to take over private property.

We see the same situation in Europe today which kept American business frightened and intimidated and stagnant throughout the Roosevelt Socialist Depression. Socialist premier today cannot crack down on labor to get a week's work because these Socialists rose to power on labor's vote, given in exchange for the promise of more pay for less work.

If Socialist premiers go back on their promises to nationalize industry they no longer are Socialists and must look to other camps for support. And in the other camps there already are better anti-Socialists.

Socialism is the Destroyer
If you were one of these Socialist premiers today—say Alee of Britain or Schuman of France—your ship just about to turn over on its side and sink, what would you do?

Why, you would yell for the Marshall Plan to bail you out! The Marshall Plan is not guaranteed to save Europe from Communism or the world from another war. Its backers hope it will.

But one thing it will do: It will keep the inefficient Socialists in power over free peoples. As long as Socialism rules Western Europe, our neighbors across the Atlantic and we will be asked to feed and clothe them.

What too many Americans do not seem to remember is that Socialism, with its twin, Communism, was "invented" by certain underdogs of Europe, or persons who believed themselves to be underdogs, who violently hated the established order. The fore-runners and associates of Karl Marx deliberately "planned it that way" as a means of destroying Western economy and culture, not of building it up.

Socialism and Communism always have been the destroyers of the Western Christian order. Communists are still saying that Europe must be destroyed before it can be rebuilt on the Communist pattern.

The Marshall Plan will not banish Socialism. It will maintain it in power, while pumping out our resources and passing them on into Socialist state controls.

"Leave Us Alone"
A bulletin from British Broadcasting Company quotes our own State Department as saying: "It will be 1952 at the earliest before the rationing of food, clothes or gasoline is likely to come to an end in Britain."

Continues the bulletin: "That will mean at least 13 years of food rationing for the people in the British Isles which all of you I am sure will reckon as a pretty good length of time for any one war period."

Though this bulletin was issued by an agency of the British Socialist government, we get the impression that its author is not very happy about government rationing controls.

You would think he could see that the Marshall Plan is the very vehicle which is to keep him tied to rationing till 1952 (and for as long thereafter as there are Marshall Plans.)

Not long ago a group of Britons who could see this fact met and sent a resolution to the people of the United States. These Britons urged us not to enact the Marshall Plan. They pointed out that the plan would only keep the Socialist heel on their necks.

They assured us that if we let them alone the Socialist government would drive itself to ruin in its own frustration and red tape, and that British freedom would reassert itself and pull Britain out of the slump.

That ought to be fair enough. (Copyright 1948 by John F. Dille Co.)

Frank Relations Between White House and Congress Could Preserve Bipartisan Cooperation on Foreign Policy
By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Feb. 2—Candor between the White House and Congress is the only sure way to preserve bipartisan cooperation on foreign policy.

A lack of candor and loose handling by President Truman of the request for $6,800,000,000 for the Marshall plan have brought wholly unnecessary friction on Capitol Hill. It is a disservice to the many people supporting the Marshall plan to hide or juggle the facts on such an important matter as $6,800,000,000 for European recovery. Time is of the essence in the program yet delays continue, due to peanut politics and pettiness in a presidential campaign year.

The truth is a better ally at the polls than political juggling, only most men in public life haven't discovered it.

Mr. Truman was not completely frank when he sent his message to Congress and asked for $6,800,000,000 for the next fifteen months. He explained that the bulk of the money would be spent in those fifteen months—between April 1948 and July 1949. Now it turns out that of the $6,800,000,000 a sum of $2,300,000,000 or about 33 1/3 per cent is to be accounted for in the budget for the fiscal year 1950.

The explanation given officially is that the $2,300,000,000 is needed as carry-over and that goods must be ordered before July 1, 1949, and will be paid for in the fiscal year ending July 1, 1950.

There have been carry-over appropriations before but they usually refer to some small portion of an appropriation that lags from one fiscal year to another. To carry over such a huge proportion or such a big amount is unprecedented.

The worst feature is that the matter could have been explained forthrightly. The attempt to hide it or to gloss over it was wrong. Maybe it was just sheer carelessness, of which there seems to be an abundance in the Truman administration.

The explanation that many members of Congress are accepting is that Mr. Truman was hard put to it to offer a budget under $40,000,000,000 and found that the Marshall plan for the next fifteen months would run the figures above the ceiling he had set. So it is suggested that the President and the budget bureau decided to separate the two items and explain the $4,500,000,000 as the money actually to be spent in the next 15 months and the $2,300,000,000 as future needs.

What is mysterious is that the President didn't tell why he didn't want to present the matter to Congress when it meets again in January 1949. At the $2,300,000,000 isn't needed till some time after July 1, 1949, there is ample opportunity to get authority next January from Congress to spend it.

There is no need for mystery about any of these matters. There are chairmen of appropriations committees who ought to be taken into the confidence of the administration. Neither President Truman nor Secretary Marshall took the trouble to explain any of these items to Senator Bridges, for instance, the powerful chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

This not only was a discourtesy but a blunder in tactics which illustrates why if the Marshall Plan gets through it will be because of the spirit of patriotism of a Republican leadership in Congress and in spite of ambiguous and inadequate statements by the Democratic administration in respect to billions of dollars of the people's money.

New York (AP)—Once upon a time in Flatbush there were two acorns. One was a good little acorn, and the other was a bad little acorn.

Both had fallen from the same tree, and were talking over life and its problems, just like a couple of Vassar sophomores.

"I want to be a big tree just like Dad," said the good little acorn, who was ambitious.

"Don't," said the bad little acorn. "What kind of a life is a scientist is any better than any other man's when it comes to politics."

Liberty Ship Is Adrift
Norfolk, Va., Feb. 2 (AP)—The Liberty ship John F. Carlisle, carrying a crew of five, drifted helplessly off the North Carolina coast today, awaiting the arrival, probably this morning, of the Coast Guard cutter Mendota, dispatched to her assistance from nearby Wilmington. The Carlisle, reported last night as "in a sinking condition," began drifting Saturday night when she broke loose from the tug P. F. Martin after a towline parted during heavy weather. At least one merchant steamer, the Kenneth Mackenzie, was standing by the Carlisle.

Man has been able to attain a temperature of 7200 degrees Fahrenheit.

I used Muscle-Rub on her and in 20 minutes the pains were relieved. I will never be without Muscle-Rub." the world's mightiest telescope into operation.

In addition, says Dr. Ira S. Bowen, director of the Palomar mountain-Mt. Wilson observatories, slight imperfections on the giant lens may necessitate another vacuum bath.

The "big eye" is expected to double the range of Mt. Wilson's 100-inch telescope which gave view of stars 500,000,000 light years away.

When placed into operation, probably in June, the Palomar telescope will peer into what once was called "the outer darkness", slantlight that has been traveling toward the earth for 1,000,000,000 years at the rate of 15,782,400,000 miles a day.

Dr. Bowen said the mirror was tilted at near-vertical position in most of the preliminary tests although some sights were taken at positions ranging to within 20 degrees above the horizon.

Most of the future photographs will be made from near-upright position, he added.

Girl, 17, Returns Baby to Mother

San Diego, Feb. 2 (AP)—There was no bitterness, only tears, as a 17 year old girl returned to a sobbing mother the six months old baby boy she had taken from a parked automobile 24 hours before.

"I'm sorry. I knew it was wrong to take him (but) I felt sorry for him, there alone in the car, crying," Mrs. Dorothy Parker, a childless child bride of two years, told the mother. She added that she lost a baby a year ago; couldn't have another.

"I said I wouldn't prosecute anybody that brought my baby back and I won't," replied the mother, Mrs. Louis B. Anders, 27. She and her husband were dancing when their son was taken from their car, parked outside, Saturday night.

Sheriff Bert Strand said that because of Mrs. Parker's age she would be placed in the juvenile detention home pending investigation. The girl said she does not know where her estranged husband is and that her parents are on a trip somewhere in Texas.

Thousands of Heatless Homes Are Getting Oil in New York

New York, Feb. 2 (AP)—Thousands of heatless homes are getting fuel oil as police and other city employees ride the trucks under Mayor William O'Dwyer's "watchful eye" policy of enforcing priorities.

Sunday deliveries of 3,500,000 gallons were reported, and 938 official observers were on the job to see that dealers did not deliver the supplies to non-essential users.

After private dwellings, other users are on the mayor's priority list in this order: Hospitals and institutions, public utilities, transportation and communication, food and food processing organizations, schools and health facilities.

Suffering from the fuel oil shortage was eased as the mercury climbed today. Temperatures here were in the mid-twenties in the early morning, and readings in the low 30s were predicted for later in the day. On Saturday morning, the mercury dropped to zero for the first time this winter.

Spokesmen for 1,000 tenants in a city-operated veterans housing project in Queens and 1,000 others in two similar developments in the Bronx said yesterday they had voted for a "rent strike" until assured of "a steady supply of oil at a fair price."

Mayor O'Dwyer said only 40 of the city's 77 terminal fuel oil dealers distributed yesterday, and that others apparently shut down because of lack of supplies.

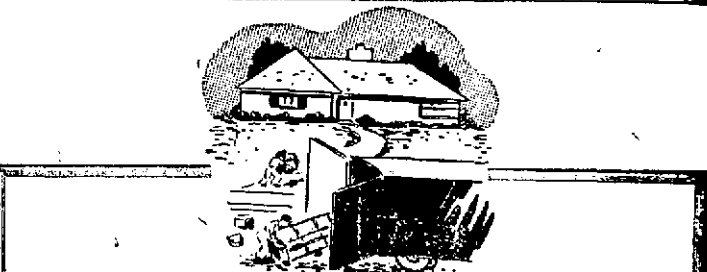

The mayor has said that if the priority system is violated or does not work properly, he will ask the Department of Health to declare a state of emergency and limit distribution by law.

A survey by the mayor showed 1,750 trucks, including 59 used

Spinella and Taylor Win Over Schatzel-Ferraro by 137 Pins

A.B.C. Immortal Averages 221 In March of Dimes Exhibition

Barney Spinella, three time A.B.C. champion and Tillie Taylor, former WIBC singles titleholder, defeated Kingston's Johnny Ferraro and Rose Schatzel by 136 pins in a five-game doubles match climaxing March of Dimes week for local bowlers Saturday night before more than 100 spectators at the Central Recs.

Spinella posted a brilliant 221 average for the route. In other features, Middletown's Pete Perrino and John Geschwinder defeated the Kingston tandem of Johnny Schatzel-Charlie Tiano by 84 pins.

The Rev. Father Henry E. Herdegen nosed out Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, 133-131, in a singles test that opened the show.

Howard "Hod" Spaulding, chairman of the March of Dimes bowling committee, said the program realized more than $100 and the overall amount contributed by Kingston bowlers during the week was $250 on the nose.

The special doubles match was a fitting climax to the March of Dimes Week and was one of the finest attractions ever witnessed in the city.

In addition to the Sims-Jones tussle, Ambrose has his Tony Pelizzzi, Long Island crowd-pleaser, and Billy Astwood, Harlem K.O. artist, for a six-round semi-final. Astwood knocked out Charlie Caruso in 2:32 of the first round in an Avalon preliminary last week.

It's been years since an American captured the so-called metric mile in Olympic competition, the last to turn the trick being Mel Sheppard when he won both the 800 and 1,500 meter runs in the 1908 games.

Sheppard's double triumph was scored in London, which again will be host to the Olympics this year.

Dodd showed 15,000 screaming fans in Madison Square Garden Saturday night that he is in for his greatest year by winning the Wanamaker mile at the Millrose games in 4:04.3, the fastest competitive time for the distance ever run by an American.

Although it was only his second start this season, Galloping Gilbert wiped out his own world indoor record of 4:06.4, set in the 1944, and tied the American outdoor record established by Gunder Haegg of Sweden at Harvard in 1943.

Kiasmen Seek To Tie All-Time Skein Tuesday

A heavy basketball calendar in Kingston this week features two appearances by the undefeated Kingston High School squad and a March of Dimes attraction between the Legionnaires and Catskill.

The unsullied Maroon faces an arch rival—Poughkeepsie High Tuesday and then seeks to break its all-time winning streak on Friday night when it is host to the powerful Redskins of Liberty High.

The Legionnaire-Catskill contest Wednesday, brings to Kingston one of the better independent squads in the area. Catskill, virtually invincible at home, holds a decision over the locals.

All proceeds of the Legion contest will be turned over to the March of Dimes fund, Andy Murphy III said today. The services of all connected with the game will be donated, namely ushers, ticket takers, referees and others.

Addison Jones, city chairman, said he was endeavoring to secure Wes Westrum, New York Giants catcher as guest referee. Lou Schaffer, Bing Van Etten and Whitley Myers also will assist in the program.

Can Tie Record

A Kingston High victory over Poughkeepsie tomorrow night on the municipal auditorium boards can tie the school's all-time record of 27 straight wins and furnish greater incentive for the DUSO fracas against Liberty.

The Redskins finished second in the first round of the DUSO with a record of 5 and 1, the lone setback being inflicted on them by Kingston.

Bridge City bookmakers aren't giving Sam Kalloch's basketballers a chance, rating the Kingston 15 to 20 point stronger than the Blue and White. Coach Kias, however, is not impressed by these odds and realizes that Kingston could easily suffer a letdown after the torrid game in Monticello.

Poughkeepsie has whipped Catskill twice, Fawcett and Rossett. Contingent while going to Swanton, L. I. (yipee!) and Wappingers Falls.

The Poughkeepsie standout is Eddie Donahue, the high scorer during 1946-47 season. Other members of the Kalloch varsity are Eddie Donahue, Tommy Murphy, veteran center Jimmy McEntee, Dave Jones and Bud Byer.

Williams Irked By Public Interest In Baby's Birth

Boston, Feb. 2 (AP)—Javini but apparently irked about public interest in his domestic affairs, Red Sox slugger Ted Williams stepped off a Miami plane early today and was greeted by a small army of newspapermen and a few friends.

"I heard about the birth of my daughter 10 hours after it happened. A Boston newspaper phoned me the news. I was out fishing at the time," Williams explained.

"I tried to make plane reservations but was unable to do so until yesterday," he continued. "I've heard there has been criticism because I did not get to Boston sooner. But that's my business and none of the public's."

Williams said he would visit his wife and daughter in their Boston hospital later today.

In The Pocket with CHARLIE TIANO

Hash Brown with One Egg:

If there has ever been a greater Kingston High School basketball team than the current 1947-48 edition, we haven't seen it in the past 22 years. . . . Come what may for the remainder of the schedule Eddie Weaver and company will go down in the record books as Coach G. Warren Kias' greatest basketball machine. . . . We can't see anybody stopping the Maroon from here on out consistently in view of the fact that the second half DUSO schedule brings Monticello, Liberty and Port Jervis to Kingston's doorstep. . . . Poughkeepsie will be "up" for the Feb. 29 engagement in Sam Kalloch's hatbox but the Bridge City basketballers certainly won't be hopped up any more than were Liberty and Monticello. . . . We trust the K.H.S. basketballers will kindly overlook the foregoing bouquet and continue to play each game as if it were the game that must be won.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

"Paper" teams furnish a lot of dreams for the armchair generals in sports but often they don't pay off on the field of combat. . . . Take "Link" Fisher's Town Cafe in the Major League for an example. . . . Everybody tells Link he has the best "paper" squad in the circuit, but they can't win consistently. Says Fisher: "They're for sale . . . for a nickel." Coach Kias passed up the physician's convention in Syracuse to forestall any possible letdown by the Maroon. Kias' runners prior to the Monticello fracas. . . . When "Mac" MacLellan runs out of nicknames for Fred Rice, then we can be reasonably certain the millennium has arrived. . . . But we do hope Mac lays off that "alley doctor" tag. . . . That was retired by Al Kieffer, the noted Flatbush chicken and hickory nut tycoon, who took his shingle after the Crystal Beauty Shoppe squad was disbanded. With the Beauties out of the way, "Doc" Kieffer's chores were ended. . . . However, we always felt he should have been presented on charges of malpractice. He "doctor" the aljeys so effectively the Crystal Beauty kiegiers romped off with the pennant.

Of Men and Mice:

In the New York Times Radio Honor Roll for 1947, Mel Allen, K.A.A. speaker on March 3, was cited in sports for his seasonal coverage of the Yankees and in giving part of the World Series play-by-play. . . . "Allen," said the Times, "exhibited a dispassionate and unemotional reportorial ability altogether too rare in sports announcing." . . . In other words, Mel is a fair, unbiased square shooter. . . . The Duke Landgraf has signed three new umpires for the North Atlantic League—all from Pennsylvania. Would you expect him to pick New Yorkers? . . . Nice break for "Sugar" Scherger in his transfer as manager of the Dodgers' Olean, N. Y., farm club in the Pony League. . . . Scherger will be up near the top in a few years.

An Official Report:

The official memorandum on the North Atlantic League's recent annual meeting reads something like this: "The North Atlantic solved two problems at the January 11 meeting in Stroudsburg, Pa. The Kingston franchise was placed in Lansford, Pa. and Louis Haselco, owner of the Poughkeepsie Colonial League club, agreed to purchase stock in Stroudsburg and arrange a working agreement. Kingston had been forfeited to the league by the Brooklyn Dodgers following a disastrous season, and the franchise was sold to Joseph Tito of Lansford, Pa. and Newton, N. J. applied for the vacancy by letter but were not considered because they were not represented. . . . On reconsideration, plans for playing only 126 games were abandoned and it was voted to continue with a 140-game schedule. The salary limits were raised from $2,250 to $2,600 monthly and two players added to the club rosters which are to include three pitchers, limited service men and three veterans. All clubs have working agreements with major league organizations. Carbonale with the Phillies; Bloomington with Cleveland and Peckskill switched from the New York Giants to the St. Louis Browns." . . . The Landgraf problem remains unsolved.

Despite the fact that he is a marked man—watched by the best that professional basketball can produce—Joe Fuls, the sensational Philadelphia Warrior sharpshooter—has almost kept pace this season with his record of last year in the Basketball Association of America. His average for the first 26 games last season was 23 per contest or .600. . . . This year he has hit 22 points a game for the same number or .571.

One-Man Display By Denny Winters Ready for Gotham

Woodstock, Feb. 2—One of the most energetic Woodstock artists, Denny Winters who is Mrs. Herman Cherry in private life, will have a one-man show at the Renn Galleries, New York City, beginning February 7.

Since the beginning of her career while studying at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and the Chicago Art Institute in 1931, Denny has had few if any idle moments.

Before taking up residence in Woodstock in 1945, Denny had a long and varied career starting with her first exhibition in the Chicago Art Institute in 1934, when her painting in the American Annual was selected for museum tour. About that same time she made a dramatic for the Social Science Building, Chicago World's Fair and the University of Chicago.

To earn sufficient money to continue with her painting, this talented young woman painted and designed costumes for the Department of Interior Painters in New Mexico during 1940; traveled with a show as stage director for six months through New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and Colorado. At the end of the tour, Mrs. Cherry studied lithography in the Fine Arts Center in Colorado Springs, then on to Mexico for several months painting, later returning to Los Angeles.

While on the West Coast, Denny designed sets for Duke Ellington's production "Jump for Joy" and also designed costumes for the Sam Goldwyn production "North Star".

Since private evening classes in art which Denny and her husband taught, Denny also instructed soldiers in the psychiatric ward in the Birmingham Hospital in Los Angeles and was the background artist for soldier's educational films.

The Cherry's arrival in Woodstock was delayed by a car breakdown in Kunkletown, Pa., where they lived for several months while a repair shop owner made every effort to get the necessary parts to put the car in running condition. This unexpected interlude was a most enjoyable one where they found many interesting subjects to paint and where they had their first taste of eastern hospitality and which Denny describes as being "simply wonderful." She particularly recalls the good times they had sitting around good old fashioned kitchen ranges in their former neighbors' homes.

The Cherry's have never regretted the breakdown because of their pleasant experience which was a result.

Denny's previous one-man shows have been held in the Stanley Rose Art Gallery, Los Angeles, Frank Perls Art Gallery, Los Angeles Museum of Art, San Francisco Museum of Art and the Mortimer Levitt Gallery, New York City. In national shows, she has exhibited in Carnegie Institute, La Tausen, Pepsi Cola, Museum of Modern Art, Pennsylvania Academy, Chicago Art Institute, Colorado Springs, Denver Museum, San Francisco Museum and Los Angeles Museum.

The first prize in the Denver National was awarded Denny in 1941 for her oil painting, and the same year her lithograph took the first prize in the San Francisco National Print Show. In the 1943 Los Angeles show, this

ENCOURAGING RETURN OF BORROWED BOOKS

Book-lending creates a problem because of the carelessness of too many borrowers. The following letter, however, presents a new angle: "I have been signing my name 'Dorothy Smith' in my books. Because some of the people to whom I have loaned books know me only as 'Mrs. John Smith,' I am wondering if they don't know who the books belong to, because so many have not been returned. I am wondering whether it will help matters if I write my name in these books as 'Mrs. John Smith' instead of 'Dorothy.' I've felt it would be improper to prefix a title to my name in my books, but borrowers may lend books they borrow to others who may not know who 'Dorothy Smith' is and that is why so many are lost."

Dear Mrs. Post: While it is so late now to ask about the correct wording of our name to represent all five of us—mother, father and three half-grown children—we may need to know again, so I'll explain the situation to you: My husband is John B. Adams, Jr. Instead of having cards printed with all five names appearing, we wanted to have them simply "The John B. Adamses, Jr." or perhaps more correctly, "The John B. Adamses, Jr." Which one is the best to be used for such a purpose?

Answer: "The John B. Adamses, Jr." is quite all right for you and your husband. To include the children, it would have to be "John B. Adams, Jr. and his family" or "Mr. and Mrs. John B. Adams, Jr. and their children."

At Most, Very Little

Dear Mrs. Post: I've been taken to task for criticizing the over-starching of table linen. I feel that table linen, if ironed quite wet, shines and lays flat. But so often I encounter a tablecloth that was starched and a bit billowy and the napkins starched so they turn out to have a razor edge. What is your opinion? Answer: Beautiful table linen never should be starched. A sleeky quality that would be limp without any starch should be starched—but very lightly.

Are you planning a wedding anniversary? Mrs. Post gives her advice for entertainment, whether it is the first anniversary or the 50th, in her leaflet, E-7. The governor said, "no people can point to a record of such rapid development and progress as the Negroes of America." Groundhog's Dead: His Age Catches Him

New York, Feb. 2 (AP)—There'll be no "official" groundhog watching here today because the civic groundhog has died of old age and the severe cold has driven the live ones too far underground.

New Yorker's will have to watch their own shadows or use other means of predicting how long winter will last.

The deceased pet of the Kips Bay Boys Club was used for many years to determine whether he saw his shadow on Feb. 2, thereby forecasting six more weeks of winter.

G. Dunn Younger, the club's executive secretary, says the boys haven't been able to get another because the cold weather has caused the animals to "hold up so deep."

Distillers Plan To Continue Own Limited Grain Use

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2 (AP)—Louisville distillers today said expiration of federal control over whisky making would have little effect on production in this area. The controls expired Saturday at midnight.

Spokesman for the industry said distillers would comply with President Truman's request to limit use of grain.

The President yesterday asked the industry to use no more grain each month than the amount allotted during January under the government's grain saving program. That amount was 2,500,000 bushels.

Vice-president H. Fred Wilkie of Joseph E. Seagram and Sons said he did not expect an increase in production, since distillers had indicated willingness to comply with the President's request.

James J. Dunn, resident manager for National Distillers Products Corp., said production figures this month probably would remain about the same as those of January. He added that "it may increase later." He said local distillers probably would meet this week and determine a voluntary allocation of grain here.

Wright Funeral Held in Dayton

Co-Inventor of Airplane to Lie Beside Brother

Dayton, O., Feb. 2 (AP)—Men of war and peace gathered today in the cradle of aviation to bury Orville Wright, co-inventor of the airplane.

Funeral services for the 76-year-old pioneer aviator were scheduled for 2:30 p. m. in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Senesholes will officiate. Wright died of a lung congestion and heart ailment Friday night.

The tiny man, who saw his dream of flying through the sky become a reality, will be laid beside his older brother, Wilbur, in Woodland cemetery. Wilbur died in 1912.

The two brothers founded a new era—the air age—Dec. 17, 1903, with a 12-second, 120 foot flight over the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N. C.

Orville Wright lived, did most of his work in aviation, and died in this Ohio industrial city.

Until the American Civil War, navies of the world were built of wood.

Wallace Opens His Campaign in Ohio

Columbus, O., Feb. 2 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says he doesn't believe American Communists seek to use force to overthrow the United States government. He also challenges President Truman "and other candidates

Wallace repeatedly emphasized these points yesterday in opening his third-party presidential campaign in Ohio.

"The most frequent charge made against American Communism is that they advocate the violent overthrow of the government of the United States," Wallace said. "I have not seen evidence to substantiate the charge."

Wallace asserted he was not a "Communist or Socialist or Marxist of any description." He said he could find nothing criminal about persons advocating social and economic ideas differing from his own.

Russia Files Two More Complaints Against the U. S.

Latest Protests About U. S. Bombers Over Soviet Shipping in Jap Waters

By BARTON D. PATTIE
London, Feb. 2 (AP)—Russia has filed two more complaints against the United States, the Moscow radio reported today. That makes four in less than a week.
The latest protests, the broadcast said, concern the flights of American bombers over Soviet shipping in Japanese waters and the activities of the American Military Mission in Iran.
The bomber flights, the radio said, infringed upon the freedom of merchant shipping, while the activities of the U. S. Military Mission in Iran are called threats to the Soviet frontier. The Russians want both activities stopped, the broadcast said.
The first two protests, announced last week, complained about the projected opening of Mellana Airfield in North Africa and about the presence of U. S. warships in the Red Sea. The Russians said both those things were violations of the Italian peace treaty.
(Washington dispatches said those protests would be rejected sometime this week.)
Now the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has demanded that American bombers stop flying over and inspecting Soviet shipping in the Yellow Sea and the Sea of Japan, the Moscow radio said.
The protest note said the bombers were flying low and sometimes diving on Russian ships and that such actions constituted "interference upon the freedom of merchant shipping."
The broadcast, quoting a Tass dispatch, said Russia sent a note to U. S. Ambassador Walter B. Smith last Friday demanding that the necessary instructions be issued to stop the actions, which produced "legitimate resentment on the part of crews and passengers of Soviet steamers."
Saturday, a later Moscow broadcast said, Soviet Ambassador Ivan Sidichikov handed to the Italian government in Tehran a note asserting that activities of the American Military Mission in Iran constitute a threat to the Russian frontier, which adjoins Iran to the north.
The note, according to a Pravda dispatch from Tehran, said American officers were directing the erection of fortifications along the border and that American advisers were directing the building of airfields there.
The dispatch declared that tours by American officers of border districts, "ostensibly for the purpose of inspecting Iranian army units, were 'in actual fact x x x for the purpose of making photographs and making a military study of the Soviet-Iranian frontier.'"

Wellesley Graduate Dies; Starved Self, Is Reported
Boston, Feb. 2 (AP)—Miss Kathleen Lynch, 22, a Wellesley College graduate and a Boston social worker, "deliberately starved herself to death," a medical examiner's report said today.
Dr. Richard Ford, associate medical examiner, asserted that Miss Lynch refused to eat enough during the past three years to sustain her body's needs and died from "malnutrition."
Miss Lynch, daughter of Dr. Paul V. Lynch of Evansville, Ind., died in a Boston hospital Saturday.
Mrs. Mary Hoaglund, a college friend of the girl, told police that she had notified Dr. Lynch of his daughter's illness and that he had asked a Boston psychiatrist to examine the girl.
She added, however, that the girl was taken to the hospital before the psychiatrist's examination.
Mrs. Hoaglund said that several times during college terms Miss Lynch was sent home for doctor's care, but police could give no reason for the girl's action.

political strikes would be less likely to occur and true collective bargaining would best be fostered if labor organizations were headed by non-Communists.
The N.M.U. is a seamen's union concentrated on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. It is headed by Joseph Curran. Curran contends in the suit that, although not a Communist himself, he feels it is legal to require a man to state his political beliefs.
The union long has been split into so-called right and left wing factions.
In bringing the suit the N.M.U. asked for a court order compelling the N.L.R.B. to put the union's name on ballots in two election cases now before the N.L.R.B. In both cases the A.F.L. Seafarers International Union wants to represent sailors of Great Lakes steamship companies.
The N.L.R.B. declined to let the N.M.U. participate in the elections because Curran and other union officers refused to file the non-Communist oaths and submit other required data.

The two top Republicans in Congress — Senator Vandenberg (Mich.), president of the Senate, and Speaker Martin (Mass.) of the House—are regarded as more likely to be chosen if he feels he can't make the grade himself.
In fact, either Vandenberg or Martin is said to be just as acceptable to Taft, except for the obligation that Taft owes Bricker.
Vandenberg has taken himself out of the race in public statements, but has said no man could refuse his party's nomination. Martin just says he isn't a candidate.

Council Recommends Benefits For Dependencies Under Law

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 2 (AP)—Dependency benefits for the unemployed are recommended by the New York State Advisory Council on placement and unemployment insurance.
The council, in its annual report filed with Governor Dewey and the Legislature today, also proposed:
1. Inclusion in unemployment-insurance law coverage of employers with fewer than four workers.
2. Registration of all persons applying for jobs.
The council was unanimous in holding that present benefits to the idle, ranging from $10 to $21 a week for 26 weeks in a year, were "inadequate."
Seven of the nine-member body recommended that in instead of $27, as favored by Governor Dewey's administration, the benefits be boosted by granting allowances to claimants for their dependents.
Under existing law, the benefit rates are the same to persons with dependents as those without.
"Present benefit rates are governed solely by prior earnings," the majority report said. "The moneys which we provide for unemployment insurance are social funds and must be distributed not just to increase the general income of claimants but to meet the underlying social need."
Because of inflation, "the benefit now being paid is not sufficient to stave off privation for the worker who has a family, the majority asserted."
Two members of the council said in a minority report that dependency allowances would increase "unreasonably" the weekly benefit, make the unemployment system "fiskin" to relief and "tend to destroy the incentive to work."
The dissenters were John L. Frain and Frank L. Weil, two of the three employer representatives on the council.
No Specific Allowances
The majority did not recommend any specific allowances for dependents. The state C.I.O. seeks an increase in benefits from $10-$21 to $15-$30 and allowances of $5 for the first dependent, $4 for the second and $3 for the third.
The council recommended that the unemployment insurance law embrace employers with fewer than four employees. Those workers now are ineligible for such benefits. The council said the change would extend benefit provisions to 450,000 additional persons.
In seeking reasons for unfilled job orders in the state unemployment service despite "a substantial supply of job seekers," the council said it found that:
"To an admittedly unknown degree the answer seems to lie in the failure of the employment service to make adequate use" of job seekers receiving benefits.
The council recommended that the employment service, particularly in New York city, take immediate steps to register all persons applying for jobs and to maintain current files of all job applicants.
Industry, labor and the public each have three representatives on the council.
